Los Angeles based singer / songwriter Miss Trezz explores Darkwave, Industrial, EDM, Trip Hop and Goth Pop sounds. She honed her craft in her hometown of Chicago and Philadelphia as a classically trained vocalist. Miss Trezz's wide range of styles is eclectic from Opera, Jazz, Synthwave to Electronica and Nu Metal.

You can't help but feel seduced by Miss Trezz's dark chanteuse aesthetics as you feel the pain, honesty and viscousness in her voice. Miss Trezz will continue to fuse ominous thought-provoking lyrics with catchy vocal hooks in a range of genres to continue mining the depths of her abilities.

Her previous Goth Pop release and music video titled, 'Devil's Daughter' tells an eerie tale of a near death experience revealing she is the devil's spawn. Now stay tuned for her cover of Duran Duran's 'Come Undone' on August 30th 2023 as her first release on Re:Mission Entertainment.

Miss Trezz and Paul Wiley (Composer of Terrifer / Marilyn Manson) have joined forces collaborating on a Synthpop/ Electronic Rock version of Duran Duran's, 'Come Undone', bringing a breathy sensuality to this love-lorn ballad. "I was drawn to the authenticity and vulnerability of this song as it expressed a familiar unraveling of self when emotions of the heart override the logic of self preservation in romantic relationships."
